Foreword

The artist appeals to that part of our being which is not dependent on wisdom; to that in us which is a gift and not an acquisition—and, therefore, more permanently enduring. He speaks to our capacity for delight and wonder, to the sense of mystery surrounding our lives; to our sense of pity, and beauty, and pain.

Joseph Conrad

Dedication

REV. WILLIAM T. EAGAN, O.S.A.

We, the Seniors of 1957, take this opportunity which is uniquely ours to dedicate our yearbook to Father William T. Eagan.

This dedication expresses the debt of gratitude which our class owes to Fr. Eagan. The underclassmen join us in recognition of his fulfillment of priestly duties and devotion to the students of Malvern.

Oh, Hum! Another day.

I offer all my prayers, works . . .

A Typical

A good breakfast for a good start.

Wake up . . . shave . . . get dressed
 . . . go to chapel . . . eat breakfast . . .
 . . . cram for test . . . go to class
 . . . rough test . . . catch a smoke . . .
 hot debate in P.O.D. . . . plan weekend
 . . . discussion of Law of Relativity in physics . . . collation . . . receive 18
 pages of French notes . . . little probe in English . . . eat lunch . . . Student Council meeting . . . sports . . . busses

Hurry up, J. J.! We don't want to get another detention.

Will the bell ever ring?

Study, study, and more study.

Day

leave . . . study . . . eat dinner . . .
 bull session . . . must study . . . ash tray getting full . . . keep studying . . .
 sneak a look at sports page . . . no,
 have to study . . . at last! . . . watch TV
 . . . call for a date . . . get turned down
 . . . try again . . . looks like a bad weekend . . . rock n' roll record concert . . .
 shout from Prefect . . . lights out . . .
 Oh Well! so ends another day.

Time out for a letter from home.

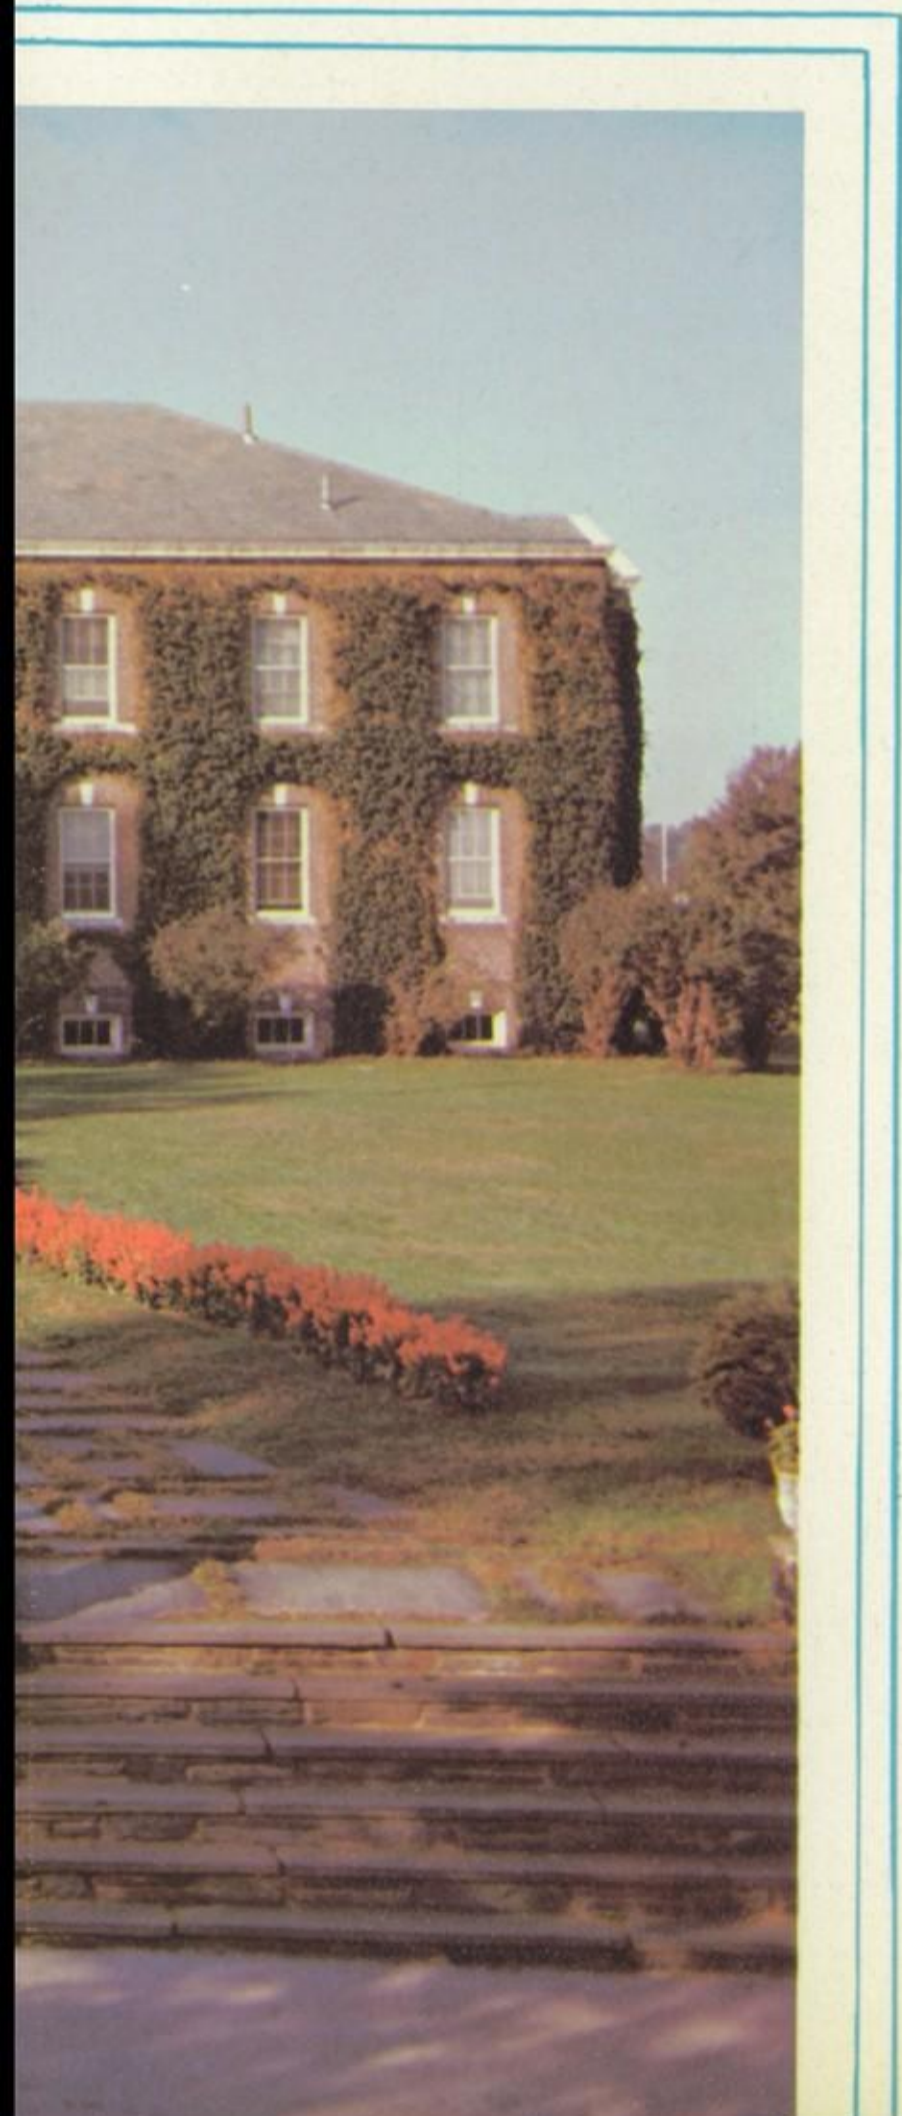

Okay, you guys, who took my toothpaste?

Headmaster's Message

Each year it is the pleasant duty of the Headmaster to give a word of advice to the departing Seniors.

This year of 1957 is a special year in the sense that there is great promise of peace in the midst of apparent turmoil. The inventions of man have made it appear that they will finally undo the creations of God. But God is in his heaven and all's well with the world. America seems to be the world power that is showing the way to temperance and power. And you young red-blooded Americans, products of Catholic training, will use your growing influence in the cause of right reason. In the mass exodus of secondary school graduates, you are being sent forth by your confident teachers to play your part in a mad-power world. It is expected of you that the inner light, which has been enkindled and fed through your preparatory school days, will burn bright in the darkness that encircles you.

May God in His goodness give you the opportunity and courage to do your part in the fight for right and for the peace that must come in the not too distant future.

FATHER DENNIS, O.S.A.

Our Malvern

We, the senior class of 1957, would like to express profound respect and sincere gratitude to the Malvern Faculty. In our four years at Malvern we have learned to appreciate the unselfish devotions of these good men who have dedicated their lives,

Junior Class History

Our third year at Malvern saw our full entrance into the life and spirit of the school. Our class versatility and joviality enabled us easily to make the important change from strangers as Freshmen and learners as Sophomores to full-fledged upper-classmen. Juniors played an important part in every phase of Malvern's school life.

Scholastically, we were swamped and bewildered by axioms, Dalton's theory, liaisons and double effects; but still we did ourselves credit and emerged with our share of honor students.

Juniors distinguished themselves in all sports, especially in football, basketball, and track. Four Juniors cracked the starting football squad, two starred in basketball, and fleet Junior trackmen carried the Blue and White to fame on the cinders.

We lent our thespian talents to both Cap-N-Bonnet productions, sponsored a Junior Prom that was "the best ever," and enriched all other extra-curricular activities by our participation.

But our most notable assets were the boundless good will and spirit which characterized all our actions—a spirit we hope will enable us to equal or surpass the fine records of previous Senior classes.

Sophomore Class History

We entered Malvern as the Class of '59 and were surprised to be the first freshman class to escape the dread "Freshman Day." We returned this year to resume our studies as upperclassmen.

In athletics we have played important roles, with four members on the Varsity squad and our class well represented on the basketball and baseball teams as well.

Our class has been very enthusiastic in social events and extracurricular activities. We sponsored our first dance, a great success.

So far, we are well on the road to success and have a keen, eager desire and a firm determination to continue that road of achievement.

Freshman Class History

Realizing the awesome task before us, we, the Class of '60, were a bit aghast at the prodigious endeavor we were about to undertake. However, as the year progressed we leaped our initial barrier of diffidence and adapted ourselves to the pattern of Malvern development in admirable fashion. In fact, in our short history we have more than fulfilled all expectations—indicative of future greatness.

In the classroom, we Freshmen displayed proficiency in all subjects, accepting immediately the fact that hard work is a necessary factor in education.

On the athletic field, we established ourselves in every activity, demonstrating the ability, determination and sportsmanship long associated with Malvern.

As the months passed by, the intensity of our enthusiasm and spirit was broadcast by our complete support of school affairs, sacrificing our own interests for those of the school.

However, not content with our fine record, we determine to expand and augment our efforts for the betterment of Malvern and to establish a precedent for future classes to imitate.

Although the coaching debut of Mr. Mike Mayock was not successful in the won and lost column, everyone agrees that the team was much better than its 3 and 5 record indicated. Mr. Mayock had a task ahead of him: to mold a good team out of the lettermen returning from last year. Set for the first game, was a hard-working ball club, well versed in fundamentals.

In the opening game, Malvern bowed to the Sallies 12-0. In their next encounter, the Friars overcame a 7-6 deficit, and defeated Cape May 19-7. Against F.C., Malvern pulled the game out of the fire with a last minute touchdown. The following Friday night, we were beaten by an inspired St. Matthew's eleven. In our league opener, we were soundly beaten by G.A., the future champions, 23-0. Against Haverford we fared a little better, but lost by a 12-0 score. The following week, an inspired Malvern squad, hungry for victory, knocked off Episcopal 6-0. In our final game, we were beaten by Penn Charter 26-0.

With a number of seasoned underclassmen returning to next year's squad, Malvern can look forward to more prosperous days on the gridiron.

As a result of the inspiration and instruction of head coach, Dr. Eugene Powers, our varsity basketball team of '56-'57 completed the most successful season in Malvern history. In our pre-league games, we were stunned only twice by St. James of Chester, losing by two and three points respectively. In spite of these two set-backs we plunged into the Inter-Ac and proceeded to upset our rivals one by one. As the first half of the league schedule drew to a close we were solidly thumped by Haverford on the victor's court 48-33. However, bounding back from our first league loss, we continued to roll over all oncomers, thereby finishing second in the league.

Our Varsity Nine battled its way to a fairly successful 10-7 season this Spring. Plagued by a vicious hitting slump that included veterans and rookies in the early part of the season, we got off to an extremely slow start. (Don O'Neill was our only salvation during the periods when hits were scarce, pitching 3 no-hitters and 7 shutouts.) However, towards the end of the Spring, our hitting increased and victories became more frequent. We finished our season thumping the leaders of the league and carving a niche for ourselves in third place.

The seven year famine finally ended for the first time in Inter-Ac competition. Malvern won a championship! Credit must be given to Mr. Paul Felton, our fine young teacher-coach for a splendid job well done. Charlie Fernald, our captain, also deserves a round of applause along with Bill Heuisler who put us into this championship. Many other names could and should be mentioned in this book but their names and praises would run from cover to cover. The Class of 1957 is proud to give to Malvern its first championship the day of our graduation.

As Malvern entered the Inter-Ac championship games on May 31, she was supposedly a strong underdog in back of Haverford, G.A., Episcopal and Penn Charter. Malvern's spirit and fight along with good sportsmanship were not to be denied as she emerged victorious: co-champions with Episcopal Academy.

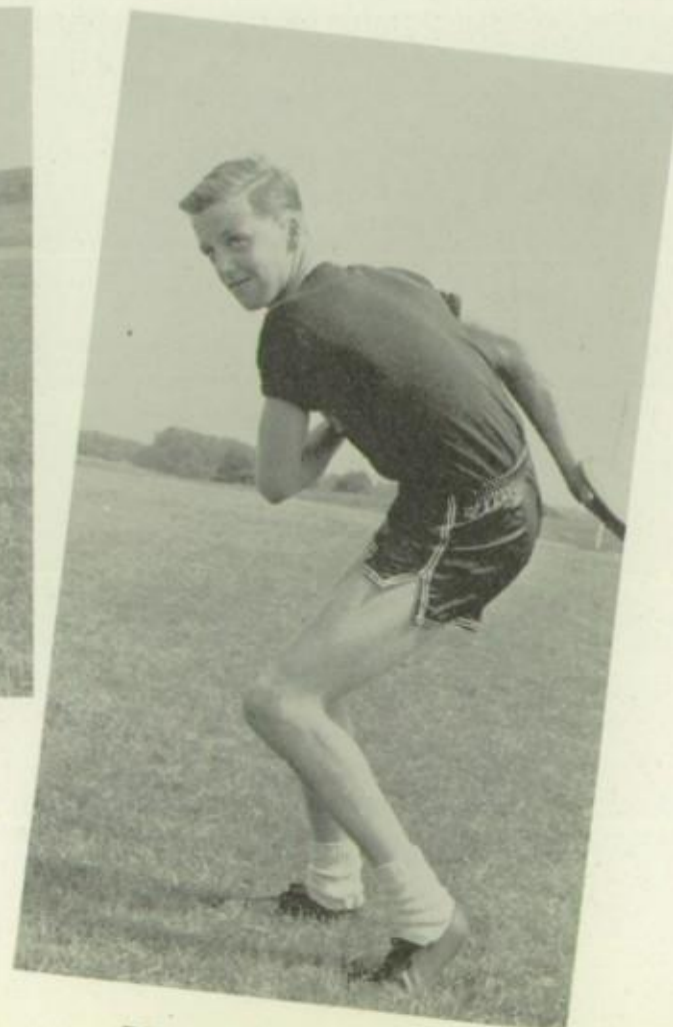

Let's hope the seven years of plenty will follow our startling track team's example.
